The Son and Reins Ranch

November 2024

Temps at our Fall Fest were mid 70's.... less than 2 weeks later? Not so much!

Fall Festivities

What a fun-filled day this was for the 120+ people who came! First, we feasted on BBQ and many side dishes -- a BIG SHOUT OUT to Therese and Steve who were generous enough to donate this feast! And thank you to all of you who brought drinks, desserts and more side dishes! As we ate, we enjoyed live music, which always makes for such a special ambience! Thank you, Michael and Tom!!

Then, groups rotated between pumpkin races, apple bobbing, corn hole contest outside, and country-western line dancing in the barn! We also had face painting (thank you Maisa and Maiura), AND, the horses were decorated and enjoyed bobbing for apples!

Pictures tell the story! And if you missed this event (or you didn't!), keep scrolling to the end to get details about our upcoming Christmas festivities! This will be our last event of the year, so don't miss out!

TESTIMONIES

My sessions have been instrumental in finding my way back to life. For me, the Ranch is a true and real sanctuary and holds great and eternal hope! I've experienced so much from my time here. Thank you for all that we've accomplished together!
~ DW

My sessions have been surprisingly relevant and healing. So many things became clear to me about myself and how I was contributing to the breakdown of my marriage. Suddenly, instead of feeling helpless, I felt empowered. Instead of meeting with an attorney, we're meeting with a therapist and signing up for couple's sessions at the Ranch!
~ T & D

Did You Know...?

Did you know that hay prices are up to $15.50/bale, and in the winter months, our herd eats 2 bales a day? This adds up quickly!
