COLORADO GIVES DAY

is coming up on the 10th of December!

You can donate to this campaign to honor Giving Tuesday as well (3 Dec)!

CO Gives Day is the day when we all come together to support the nonprofits we love the most! I always enjoy the sense of community this creates, the "we're in it together" spirit! This year, when you're choosing which nonprofits you'll support, we ask you to please consider giving to The Son and Reins Ranch! We're proud to be part of this movement! The official day is December 10th, but early giving is available now! And again, you can give on Giving Tuesday to honor that day as well!

It takes a TEAM... and you can be assured and encouraged knowing your donations have a direct impact on the people who come here for help!
