FALL is proof that change is BEAUTIFUL!

Most people would say they don't like change, and to some extent I understand that. Change represents the unknown, which means uncertainty, and for most of us, uncertainty brings anxiety.

But as we see in nearly every session we do, without change there is no healing and growth. Without change we become too comfortable and complacent. Without change we get stuck and are stagnant.

God speaks to us through all His creation and design, including the different seasons. We love the fragrance of spring and the colors of fall; while wishing we could somehow avoid the cold dormancy of winter. Every season looks and feels different, yet every season is beautiful in its own way.

With God, the same is true in our personal lives as well.

We pray for and we SEE change and transformation in nearly every participant in our sessions. We watch the sometimes painful but always necessary pruning that needs to take place, and then the growth and renewal that brings healing and hope.

Autumn is a beautiful, tangible example of God's perfect design -- that in the dying there is vibrant beauty, and new life appears in the springtime!

Our first WORSHIP NIGHT IN THE BARN was such a beautiful, inspiring and enriching time together! The cozy ambience of the barn, the powerful lyrics of the songs, the sound of His children lifting their voices to praise and worship Him together.... It was such a blessing! And not only did we have many people request that we do it again, but members of the worship band also asked if they could do it again!

So YES, absolutely!! We'll be doing it again in the spring!

I was personally blessed this month to have a dear friend from Australia visit, as well as my mom's cousin from PA. They both participated in a group equine session, were here for the worship night, and got to share in our women's fellowship. It was an honor and blessing to be able to share the ministry with them!

Women's Fellowship... It was a powerful, beautiful and profound time of writing on stones the lies that burden us, prayerfully laying them on the horse's back and then watching God's Truth about us cover those lies.

With the horse bearing the weight of our heavy burdens, which were nothing for the horse to carry, we took turns wrapping ourselves and each other in our True identity in Christ, which, unlike the stones, is lightweight and transparent, full of hope and comfort.

Thank you, Hope, for prayerfully preparing and leading this time for us!

In Matthew 11:28-29, Jesus says, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls."

Our next Women's Fellowship is coming up on Saturday the 8th of Nov. from 2-4pm.

As always, feel free to invite whoever you'd like!

This is always a fun, emotionally safe and insightful time together.

This next fellowship we'll be focusing on gratitude and getting our hearts and minds ready for Thanksgiving, which ought not to be just a one-day holiday but a way of life!

We would love to hear from you! Please let us know if you have any specific prayer requests and praises so we can join with you!

And let us know if you'd like more information on sessions, volunteering, or you'd just like to schedule a visit. Our herd of people, horses and dogs would all love that!
